Berlin, April 8.—Dr. Boninsky, a high Polish ecclesiastic, who was travelling through Koscleleg, was waylaid by four men, all or whom fired at him with revolvers. The Doctor's body was riddled with bullets and he died almost instantly.

Villagers pursued the assassins and brought them to bay. In a desperate fight the villagers were fired upon and returned the shots, killing two of the men.

The remaining two murderers continued firing upon their would-be captors.

Finally they exhausted all their cartridges except one in each of their two revolvers.

The attacking party made a rush to capture the two men, who, preferring death to capture, placed their revolvers to their heads and blew their brains out.

The bodies were searched and on each of them was found a red ticket on which was failing the brains out.

The legal controversy over the furnishings of the once notorious. House of All Nations, at 117 West Thirty-second street, eame near resulting in a murder during the early hours of this morning.

According to Mrs. Emma Charles, the former owner and proprietress of the house, and Policeman Sahulka, of the West Tnirtieth street station, Mrs. Charles narrowly escaped being killed by a pistol bullet, fired at her by Talmage W. Leak, the alleged huseand of Carrie Baker, who was the more recent proprietress of the resort. The policeman was in West Thirty-second street about 2 o'clock, he says, when he saw a man looking up at an upper window of Mrs. Charles's residence, at No. 121. Mrs. Charles herself was at the window. The next instant a pistol shot rang out and Mrs. Charles creamed.

The man who had been looking up to the window ran swiftly down the street and the officer gave chase. At Seventh avenue be overpowered the fugitive and took him to the station-house, where he gave his name as Talmage W. Leak, saying he was a contractor, was thirty-three years old and lived at 168 West Thirty-seventh street. He der he had done the shooting, but a 32-calibre five-shot revolver, with one empty chamb was found in his pocket. This morning Leak was arraigned before Justice Divver at Jefferson Market Court on a charge of felonious assault. He pleaded not guilty, through his lawyer, and was held in $1,000 for examination next Monday.
